"I had a very deep longing for God or Light. I no longer wanted to be here. The Light answered me. I got what I asked for. I merged with the Light for 8 weeks. It was so completely exquisite. I was shown and taught so many things. My teachings and darshans, placing individuals into direct experiences of states of consciousness, came from this time. It was a period where I was unified with the Light."

Q: Many individuals have that longing for God. Why do you think you had this experience?

Mirabai: I definitely brought it in from previous lifetimes. There is no doubt about it. I started going into samadhi at the age of 3. From 3 - 21 years old, when I had the full awakening and merging with the Light completely, I was having different kinds of gifts awakening; gifts of sight, hearing, knowing, smell, Masters of Light appearing, astral travel, etc... Huge frequencies of Light were passing through my body.

That was not enough for me. It was the candy. I wanted the whole thing. I wanted to meet and merge with the Divine. That was just the taster. That made me have the longing more strongly. In my life before this one, I thought I was done. I thought I could go and rest now. I had attained a certain level of samadhi and then found myself in this little baby body. I remember being so angry as a baby, and thinking, 'What? I came back again! I cannot believe I came back again! I thought I was done! I wasn't planning on this.' Between going to the Light and coming back here there was something that wasn't complete. I spent my baby years trying to figure out how I got back here and what it was I needed to finish.

Q: Did you come to a realization as to what those answers were?

Mirabai: I realized when I had my full union, between 21 and 22, I had a merging with the Light and during that time I was given the full revelation. I was shown the rest of my life, everything I had to complete in this life and why I had come back. I was shown how I was to help others go back home to the Light and complete themselves. Then I was downloaded with the tools and the information. The knowledge was hardwired into me to know and be guided how to do it because I did not have that information before.

During the 8 weeks I was merged with the Light, I was given the gift of instantaneous healing. Many miracles happened through me as the instrument. I would feel a force, as a wind, pass through me, tears would come down my face, and I would feel this ecstasy. I would sit with a person, praying with them, and when I opened my eyes their physical problem would be gone, dissolved. It had disappeared.

That went on for 8 months and then I freaked out. I was 22 at the time. I said, 'I am going to get locked up. I am going to be seen as crazy. My family will never accept this. Society will never accept this. Humanity will never accept this. This is too different. How am I going to explain this? I did not have a sense of my own life or my own 'self' to be able to claim it and say, 'This is the Divine Power, the Divine Self. I am just the instrument. I am here to demonstrate this. How great Divine Grace is.' I did not know how to do that then. I just thought, 'I am going insane. I am going crazy. I am not normal. I am going to be kicked out of the mainstream.'

So, I started praying like mad. 'Please take this from me. Please take this. I don't want it. I can't handle this. I don't know how to deal with this.' It took about six months and then it was gone. When it was taken, I felt like someone who was in heaven and deposited back on earth. I was suddenly without the abilities and the connection. I was left with some of the abilities but I did not have the gift of instantaneous healing. I was left with the ability of sight and inner hearing. I lost the ability to feel the force heal people thru me. I spent about ten years developing myself spiritually so that I could get it back. I would pray to the Light. 'I was so stupid. I don't know why I did that. I understand that my ego could not handle it at the time. Please take from me the fear. I just want to help people. If I can't help people there is no purpose for me to be here because that is why you wanted me to be here. And my life is for you.' because the Divine is ultimately myself.

Q: But they did come back? The work you do now does elicit miraculous healings. I witnessed you heal a woman that had not walked in three years on her own. She walked out the door and left all of her equipment behind. How did it all return?

Mirabai: The gifts started to come back through administering the group darshans. People would come and would go away. Healings would occur but I did not get to know about it. Then, Howard Wills found me in LA. I was planting seeds for a world peace conference with Nelson Mandela and the Dalai Lama. We decided to do a workshop together and I found out what he did. I had the gift of sight and he had the gift of sight and instantaneous healings. I turned to him afterward and said, 'Wow. Miracles are being performed through you. I used to have that gift. Can you help me get it back?' He smiled and said, 'Sure, no problem. No big deal.'

It took about 3 years to fully return, in the sense I was actually seeing miracles happen. It continuously gets stronger and stronger. I know the Divine is infinite and can do absolutely anything for anyone. I trust that and I am learning more about the gift and the Light every day. It is okay to come thru me and I can own that I am the instrument. I do not have to freak out or be worried about it or afraid of what people will think.

"I freaked out. 'I am going to get locked up. I am going to be seen as crazy. How am I going to explain this? I did not have a sense of my own life or my own 'self' to be able to claim it and say, 'This is the Divine Power, the Divine Self. I am just the instrument. I am here to demonstrate this. How great Divine Grace is.' So, I started praying like mad. 'Please take this from me. Please take this. I don't want it. I can't handle this. I don't know how to deal with this.'"

Q: The time between was a period of building trust, confidence and creativity within the gifts because you had not lost them, you had lost your belief in being worthy of them coming through you?

Mirabai: Realizing I can hold that, be joyous about it, have fun with it and be humorous with people was a big step for me. I was very serious when it first started. I was absolutely terrified. When a force of lightening comes through you and instantly takes away peoples pain or their physical disabilities, it is a very frightening thing to the mind and the ego when you are young and you don't understand what's going on. (11:11 Magazine March/April 2010 issue features Howard Wills.)

Q: What do you experience through an instantaneous healing on someone?

Mirabai: The main feeling is a presence of a force or a power that feels like lightening. Imagine putting yourself into a lightning bolt. It is exhilarating. I am in prayer and bliss. I use physical words to peace make and cleanse for that person. Sometimes I cannot even speak because I am so enraptured with the remembrance of being with the Divine Light.

Q: Why are people skeptical and some really wanting to hang onto their illnesses by claiming that nothing can help them?

Mirabai: There are many reasons. They are afraid. They want to hold onto the known. Even if it is uncomfortable, it is what they know. It is safe, familiar and who they know themselves to be. They have formed an identity around it. Also, there could be dark entities or energies surrounding them. The dark does not want to be kicked out so they feed thoughts of negativity or skepticism into the mind. People will hold onto that. Some people cannot stay in the room because 'the demons in their head are haunting them.'

Q: If you are clearing from someone, where does it go? Does it leave or is it out there waiting to leech onto someone else?

Mirabai: I feel like the Divine takes care of lower energies and escorts them or transmutes them to the Light. I do not feel any sense of battle. It feels like a very loving holistic process. It is like they dissolve without violence or pain.

Q: Is there any work for the individual?

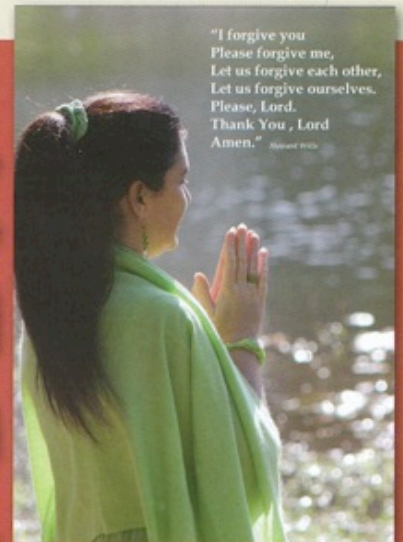

Mirabai: Lots. That is what I have learned from Howard. He has some great tools. As well as helping me get back the gifts, his forgiveness prayers do sustain the healing in the body. Without the forgiveness prayers, daily cleansing and daily peacemaking, the stuff can build back up again. I would not say the illness would come back in the same way, because the healings do last. Sometimes it comes back because the person needs to do more inner work or often they haven't cleansed. Or, if the person is still living their life in the same way and have not changed anything...if they don't change anything, it can come back again.

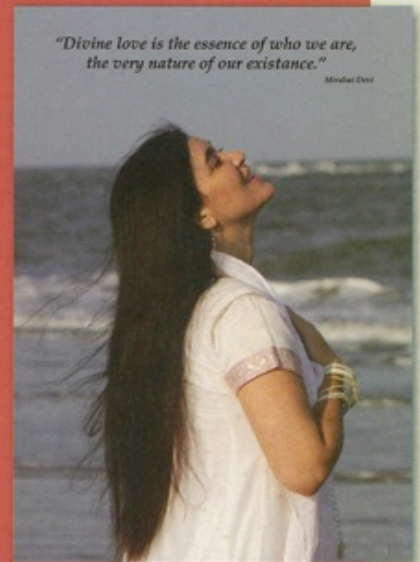

Q: If a person does not experience the healing they want, is that still a healing?

Mirabai: Yes Yes Yes. I have a client that suffers intense back pain. He wanted his back healed more than anything. We have been working together but there has been little change in his back. However, other things in his life and mind are changing. He is making supportive healthier choices. His blood sugar levels have improved, blood pressure is down, tri-glycerides are normal, he takes less pain killers, and has lost weight. All of these things happened but the back pain was there. Often the light will take care of the less serious things first and the thing you came for will be the last so that you balance out your life. The Light always works if it is seen or unseen. It always works. It is a Divine principle.
